Order of Procession

Chief Marshall — Horace Mann.

Committee of Arrangements — Wm Heard 2d, Lewis Jones, Asahel Sherman, Otis Loker, Chas R. Damon.

Dr. Wayland and Pres.t of the day. Clergymen Distinguished guests from other towns. — Rev. Mr Nigh2. Rev. Mr Sears.

Purchasing Committee — John N. Sherman, James M. Bent.

Library Committee — Sylvester Bond jun., Wm R. Dudley.

Librarian — Henry Mott.

School Committee — G. A. Somerby, Jr. L. Draper

Selectmen — Grout. Walker. T. J. Damon.

Citizens without distinction.

School No. 1 — Miss Burgess — Teacher

" " 2 — Miss Ellen Rives "

" " 3 — Miss Hemenway

" " 4 — Miss Pierce

" " 5 — Miss L. Rives "

" " 6 — Miss Mary Sherman "

The following suggestions relative to incidentals are submitted.

In case the Church is crowded to overflowing — the children are to remain in the Porch or outside.

The Teachers to be provided with seats in the Church.

In the Church, the whole congregation to rise at the presentation of Dr. Wayland by the Pres.t —

Reception for Francis Wayland

Library

From library notebook

(24)

See also inside

Aug. 25, 1851

Order & Arrangements and Exercises for the reception of Dr. Francis Wayland Thursday Aug. 25th 1851.

Dr. Wayland to be met by the committee of reception at the Boston & P. Depot. and thence to be conveyed to Wayland — At 11½ o'clock he with other invited guests will visit the Library — at 12 he will proceed to the Church accompanied by the President of the day, and preceded by the committee of arrangements attended by the Chief Marshal — passing between two lines of Citizens ~~arranged as follows~~ who will manifest their respect for their distinguished guest by uncovering their heads as he passes.

The Citizens shall be arranged so as to file into the procession in the following order — viz. following Dr. Wayland

Chaplains.
Other distinguished guests
The Purchasing Committee
The Library Committee
Librarian
School Committee
Selectmen
Male Citizens, generally
Teachers of our Summer Dist. Schools, with their respective scholars in the order of their districts.

Ladies (excepting Teachers and their Scholars) to be seated at 12 o'clock in the body and side pews of the Church, and will show their respect for Dr. Wayland by rising as he enters.

Chief Deputy Marshals to be interspersed in the procession at the discretion of the Chief Marshal.

Exercises in the Church, as follows — Prayer. — Reception Welcome in behalf of the Citizens, by the Pres. of the day. — Hymn of Welcome by Choir. — Personal introduction of Citizens all passing up the broad aisle, and returning to their seats thro' the side aisles. — Hymn — Procession then to be reformed in the same order, and proceed to the tables to partake of Collation, after invocation of Divine blessing, — followed by Sentiments, addresses and Singing — Closed by singing "From all that dwell &c"

R. Swain Ch. of Com. of Ar.

CAGE

CAGE